

Coatesville Area
School District

Inspiring. Educating. Advancing.

Join the Coatesville Area
School District for...

FROM STRUGGLE TO STRENGTH:

Discussing Mental Health and
Today's Youth with Kevin Hines

Coatesville community members are invited to come for an evening of thought-provoking discussion focused on improving mental health among today's youth.

Best-selling author, global public speaker and award winning documentary filmmaker Kevin Hines will share his story of hope, healing and recovery during this special presentation.

Hines attempted to take his life by jumping off the Golden Gate Bridge in the year 2000. There were many factors which contributed to his miraculous survival including a sea lion which kept him afloat until the Coast Guard arrived. He now travels the world teaching people of all ages the art of wellness & the ability to survive pain with true resilience.

This special program is free and open to the public.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 10
6-8 P.M.

Coatesville Area Intermediate
High School auditorium
1425 E. Lincoln Highway
Coatesville, PA 19320

